

My best buy this month

When I first tasted Tyrrell's Beetroot Chips I couldn't believe how good they were. Tyrrell's select the finest beetroot from the UK and they hand slice and fry them on the farm so the chips retain a delicious sweet flavour. If I could only recommend one thing this year, then it's got to be these – they're heavenly!

Helen

Deputy
Editor

Beetroot chips, £1.20 for a 40g bag, available from quality independent retailers nationwide